Descendants of
John Aughinbaugh
Jacob Aughinbaugh
and 4
Catherine Aughinbaugh Coble

1830-1955

This is a list of the known descendants of John, Jacob, and Catherine Aughinbaugh compiled in nineteen fifty-five. We were not able to learn much of the early history of the family, but it is thought they were the children of Henry Aughinbaugh and his wife, who came to this country from the German-Dutch border. They settled in Pennsylvania, near Philadelphia, and apparently had five children. One son remained in Pennsylvania, one settled in Ohio, and the other three children came to Indiana.

John Aughinbaugh left Pennsylvania first, and took his wife to an Indian reservation in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. They had one child, Amanda Malvina Aughinbaugh. Shortly after her birth the mother died. Malvina lived with a foster family for several years on the reservation, where her only playmates were Indian children. Then John married again, this time to Ellenora Van Airdale. Shortly thereafter the Indians were moved from the reservation and John decided to move west. They left Tuscarawas County in November, 1839, hoping to reach Illinois in time to select and clear land and erect a log cabin before the spring planting. After losing their way and going north to Toledo instead of west, and being further delayed by severe snowstorms and floods, they followed the Fort Wayne and Liberty Mills trails and arrived in North Manchester in March, 1840. With the birth of another child imminent, they decided to settle there. At that time North Manchester consisted of twelve log cabins and a log jail. John built a tavern just east of the covered bridge on the Lagie Road. He was postmaster in 1846 and again in 1861 and housed the postoffice in his tavern. He acquired quite a bit of land, at one time owning the territory bounded by Main St., Mill St., Sixth St., and the river, as well as several farms. We were not able to learn when Jacob and Catherine migrated to Indiana, but apparently both married and raised their families near North Manchester.

Our list names over eight hundred seventy-five known direct descendants of John, Jacob, and Catherine Aughinbaugh. Of these, well over seven hundred are living. These are located in twenty states as well as in Canada, Hawaii, and Japan. Counting those three as the first generation, there are some descendants in the seventh generation. The last living member of the second generation was Effie Aughinbaugh Gill who passed away in 1950 at the age of eighty. The last living spouse of the second generation was Mary Neiswender Aughinbaugh who passed away in 1954 at the age of ninety-two.

We regret that this list is not more nearly complete, but we feel it is the best we could do with the time and material available. We have located several families with whom contact had been lost. There are others we could not locate. We have received many interesting letters from relatives. We sincerely hope that this list will be of use and pleasure to many. We would liked to have included more about the present locations and occupations of the families, but felt that we could not spend the time and money necessary to gather such information.
